

Component diagram

Component description

Songs in Song DB which can be accessed by Web Server. Client has access to song info and files to download it. Administrator has access to modify this data. Also, by connecting to external service possible to get more song info, such as lyrics, album, chords, time signature, comments, examples and others.